MyBroadband is the website of choice for CEOs, CIOs, CTOs, IT managers, and technology professionals - with a total of three million IT decision-makers and tech enthusiasts visiting the site each month.

South Africa's top companies all have one thing in common - they advertise on MyBroadband.

This is thanks to MyBroadband's position as South Africa's largest and most influential technology publication.

MyBroadband is the website of choice for CEOs, CIOs, CTOs, IT managers, and technology professionals - with a total of three million IT decision-makers and tech enthusiasts visiting the site each month.

This makes it the perfect place for the country's top ICT companies to advertise their products and services, grow their brands, and position themselves as leaders in their segment.

When this large reach is combined with MyBroadband's ability to target an advertising campaign to a specific target market, companies receive an excellent ROI for their marketing spend.

Advertise on MyBroadband

MyBroadband offers a range of marketing products that make it easy to reach its influential audience.

These include sponsored articles, social media promotions, category takeovers, What's Next interviews, dedicated mailers, display banners, and more.

MyBroadband's marketing team also takes care of all aspects of a campaign – including targeting, performance optimisation, and reporting.
