

SNII appoints new enterprise development manager

SEDA Nelson Mandela Bay ICT Incubator (SNII) announced the appointment of Scott Zambonini as Enterprise Development Manager.

Zambonini will oversee the incubator's enterprise development unit and manage end-to-end enterprise development. He will provide general business mentorship to technology start-ups and young ICT SMME clients enrolled in incubation programmes at SNII, and his portfolio also includes marketing and PR for recruitment prospective clients into programmes of the incubator.
