

Broll Property Group appoints new COO: Africa

Broll Property Group, a Pan-African professional real estate services provider has appointed Jess Cleland as its COO of Africa. The group has announced a five-year plan and a strengthened strategy to position itself in the real estate sector in South Africa and across the continent.

Broll has been operating in Africa for over 15 years and has offices and operations in 13 countries. These are Botswana, Cameroon, Côte d'Ivoire, Eswatini, Ghana, Kenya, Mauritius, Mozambique, Namibia, Nigeria, South Africa, Uganda and Zambia. The company also has further capabilities and experience in 16 additional countries, underlining the depth and breadth of its role in the industry across the continent.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>