

Juliet Mey appointed managing director of North

North, a strategic brand design consultancy, has appointed Juliet Mey as managing director. Mey has vast experience both locally and abroad, in both B2B and B2C sectors. This junction will see Mey and founding partner Mike Bond lead on the new business front in the agencies efforts to expand their portfolio of clients and opportunities in both local and international markets.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>