

SAB pledges R10m to small businesses affected by last month's unrest

The South African Breweries (SAB) has pledged R10m in support of small business owners affected by last month's unrest through the SAB Foundation.

The foundation has earmarked R3m to aid 21 affected entrepreneurs in their recovery efforts. It has also set aside R7m to help 193 small and independently owned liquor outlets across Kwa-Zulu Natal and Gauteng who experienced looting, damage to property and in some cases arson.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>