On 10 April, False Bay TVET College (FBC) signed a Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) with Tommaso Silla Autobody Works Pty Limited, an Italian-based company specialising in the automotive sector since 1947.

The MOA reflects the intention of FBC, Tommaso Silla Autobody Works and Finmasters SA CC to establish a partnership that will support the development of a mutually beneficial collaboration in areas such as training, equipment and small business development and training.

This partnership will seek to support the expansion and training of the Automotive Body Repair, Spray Painting and related programmes.

"We are very excited about this partnership which will bring international expertise and experience to the Automotive Faculty. This will contribute greatly to both staff development and skills development for our students," says Karin Hendricks, FBC Deputy Principal of Education and Training.
