Colin Bower has joined TopCo Media as the editor of its range of annual business-to-business publications.

Colin is a writer and a business consultant. Previously he was managing director of the school book publishing company, Juta Gariep, and he served on the Juta Group Board for four years both as an executive and as a non-executive director. Prior to that he was the publishing director of Kagiso Publishing Company. In earlier years he was the industrial editor of the Sunday Times, and an independent public relations consultant.

Colin says: "TopCo Media's set of annual publications are well established as authoritative directories of key business data. My objective is to widen their appeal to a larger audience by raising the editorial bar and enhancing their look and feel."
