30 May 2016

OFM, the sound of your life in Central South Africa, is giving a few lucky youngsters the opportunity to live their radio dream!

On 16 June, OFM will be celebrating Youth Day by turning the airwaves over to the youth of central South Africa. Kids between 10 and 18 and students under the age of 26 will have the opportunity to experience the world of broadcasting first hand when they get the chance to get behind the microphone.

Says Nick Efsthathiou, OFM's general manager: "We want to give our younger listeners the opportunity to 'live their radio dream' on Youth Day. If ever a younger listeners considered a career in broadcasting, now is the time! We hope that this special day will be fun for our younger listeners, as well as the listeners who are young at heart!"
