South African exhibition and display company, Scan Display Solutions, has teamed up with Service Graphics, the official stand contractor for the upcoming Soccerex 2007.

UK-based Service Graphics has selected Scan Display as its local partner for the soccer show taking place at Sandton Convention Centre, Gauteng from 26 to 28 November 2007.

Soccerex is the world's biggest exhibition in the soccer industry. Last year's show was held in Dubai and attracted over 300 exhibitors and 3000 senior decision-makers from 75 countries.

Scan Display and Service Graphics have a long association; they were both members of international exhibition group, Photobition Plc.

Service Graphics' Marketing Director, Rob Kelly, is delighted to have Scan as the company's local partner for Soccerex 2007: "We look forward to working with Scan on this big project and believe there will be many more opportunities for teaming up on international events."
