28 Sep 2007

As from 1 October 2007 the head office of Provantage Media, leading provider of transit and brand activation marketing solutions, will be operating from brand new premises, located at 23 Republic Road, Bordeaux, Johannesburg.

“The exceptional growth we have experienced over the last year has necessitated that the Provantage Media team move into offices that can accommodate our ever growing team,” says Jacques du Preez, Managing Director at Provantage Media. “The addition of further lines of business in the form of Provantage Events and Provantage Transit TV, coupled with the success of our transit and activation business has driven this growth, and we are thus very excited to be moving into offices that will accommodate our current and future development plans,” he concludes.
