LexisNexis South Africa is running a special on two key titles in the credit and consumer protection domain. The National Credit Act Explained and Consumer Protection Law in South Africa Second Edition are currently available via the LexisNexis bookstore at a 10% discount. As an additional bonus to online customers, when purchasing the two titles together, a 20% discount will apply.

The fourth edition National Credit Act Explained provides legal professionals with a practical and systematic understanding of the highly complex National Credit Amendment Act of 2014. Featuring articles by prominent academic writers and recent far-reaching court decisions, the title covers aspects from the history of the National Credit Act to its scope, the various stakeholders and regulators and the rights and duties of consumers and credit providers.
