

SAFR's refreshing approach to moving and packing your home

Issued by SAFR

SAFR'S refreshing approach to enhance your South African Furniture Removal requirements nationally across South Africa and your local removal needs in our respective provinces namely: local moving services in Johannesburg, our highly rated local Western Cape Removal Services and our busy Durban Furniture Removal teams

Why should all the advantages of professional furniture removals be available at a premium which often makes it unaffordable or available to many?

What if we told you that professional furniture removals services were available to you at a portion of the cost?

Or that professional sales consultants were available on the other side of the line to guide you through a rarely needed service which can be daunting?

Are you aware of the concept of shared-load furniture removals? Why pay for space not utilised in your move?

Why be expected to subsidise the return trip which may run empty but often does not?

The short answer is that all is not as it seems.

SA Furniture Removals' unique Shared-Load facility offers you the benefits of a professional move at a fraction of the price.

Whether your move is inter-suburb or across the nation, SA Home Removals offers you a service complete with professional sales consultants, well-trained operators, and supporting services which make your once-or-twice-in-a-lifetime experience far less traumatic than it all too often is.

Your SA Furniture Removals experience begins with our consultants, each dedicated to specific regions.

Their sound knowledge of their areas and the industry is of immense benefit to you, "our client".

Navigating the sometimes-treacherous waters of accurate furniture removal quotes is made easier by these consultants who receive continuous training to maintain our high level of service.

SAFR Furniture Removals have developed a specialised shared load removals service on the underlying weekly national routes where you "our client" will benefit with great cost savings while still getting professional removal services when relocating across South Africa. These include loading, offloading with optional packing, protective wrapping and storage.

As your interaction with SA Furniture Removals progresses, your possessions become the responsibility of our removals teams, professionally adept at handling moves of all sizes. The safe moving of your possessions is of paramount importance, and we pride ourselves on our ongoing training programme to keep our hands-on staff on top of their game.
