

The Trialogue Business in Society Conference: 20/20 vision

Issued by Trialogue

5 Mar 2020

The Wanderers Club, Illovo, Johannesburg
21 and 22 April 2020

Join more than 400 corporate, non-profit, government and academic delegates for a dynamic exchange of ideas on how to enhance responsible business efforts to create meaningful impact in development. Hear from more than 50 powerhouse speakers, including activist, businesswoman and thought leader, Dr Ramphele Mamphele and Busisiwe Mavuso, CEO of Business Leadership South Africa.

Conference themes:

i. Breaking the barriers to quality education

Presented in partnership with Old Mutual

How can all sectors of society help to promote literacy as a cornerstone of quality education, collaborate to improve impact in the sector, and support early childhood development to help lay the groundwork for a lifetime of learning?

ii. Further education reform and employability

Presented in partnership with Absa

How should further education and training be preparing our youth to grow our economy, how can all sectors best support young entrepreneurs to compete in a disruptor economy, and what kind of innovation is needed for job creation at scale?

iii. ICT for development

Presented in partnership with Vodacom

What can we do to ensure that tech helps to bridge, rather than deepen, our social divide, that women and girls are adequately supported to thrive in the ICT sector, and how will tech impact the future of work?

iv. Triologue Donors Den 2020

Presented in partnership with the MTN SA Foundation

How are youth empowerment-focused non-profit organisations drawing from their monitoring and evaluation insight to improve their programming?
