City Lodge Hotel Group continues to pay 10% commission to IATA-registered travel agents and travel management companies on bookings for all of the group's hotels, including Fairview Hotel in Kenya, Courtyard Hotels, City Lodge Hotels, Town Lodges and Road Lodges. Paying commission has long been a part of the group's business culture and helps foster good relationships with travel professionals.

Andrew Widegger - CLHG CEO

Andrew Widegger, CEO of City Lodge Hotel Group, says, "We have always endeavoured to be the most bookable hotel group, particularly now that we are re-opening more hotels as travel restrictions ease. We know that travel management companies and travel agents have been hard hit by the lockdown and related restrictions and want to reassure them that we value their business and are happy to reward them for continued loyalty."

Travel agents may book their clients into any of the group's properties reassured that they would have a safe stay thanks to the internationally recognised Covid-19 hygiene and safety protocols in place. A summary of the protocols, including what guests need to know before entering the hotel, is provided on the website www.clhg.com.
