A key focus at dentsu SA is attracting top talent at early stages of their careers. To date, a total of 87 interns have been onboarded into the programme with an impressive 82% having been absorbed into permanent employment. 74% were offered permanent positions within the dentsu SA business and 8% into other businesses within the industry.

Dentsu SA pride themselves on offering practical and comprehensive skills to their interns and they are committed to building future leaders which is evident in the growth and development of the previous interns who currently hold permanent positions within the agency.

Yevenia Naidoo, HR director at Dentsu SA says: *"We are very excited to have young talent enter our business that we can nurture and grow using our tools and learning platforms, providing mentorship and coaching and exposure to what we do to create a diverse experience that can build a sustainable career.
