99c, the full-service, integrated advertising agency based in Cape Town and Johannesburg, took top honours at the inaugural Effie Awards in Johannesburg on Thursday, 14 October 2021.

The agency walked off with the Grand Effie, along with a Gold (one of only three awarded on the night) and a Silver award, for the work they proudly produced for the launch of Checkers Xtra Savings – No Smoke and Mirrors.

The Effie Awards honour the most significant achievements in advertising and marketing communications: effectiveness. The awards are known by advertisers and agencies globally as the pre-eminent award in the industry, and recognise any and all forms of marketing that contributes to a brand's success.

Says Andrew Brand, CEO and managing director – Cape Town: “Meeting our clients’ business objectives is how we measure our success. We set out to produce work that works hard to deliver results for our clients that helps to grow their business, their market share, and their profitability. Being acknowledged at South Africa’s first ever Effies awards show means we’re doing just that, and we’re humbled and honoured to be recognised. It’s particularly satisfying to have won the Grand Effie for Checkers who have been our client since we started out 13 years ago. They constantly challenge us and we drive ourselves hard to create work that’s as innovative as their business is. Being awarded for this work also demonstrates that it’s possible to do highly strategic and creative work within the retail space.”

The category wins are as follows:

- Grand Effie: Xtra Savings Launch – No Smoke and Mirrors Entry, Single Retailer Programme: Mass Merchants, Supermarkets, Drugstores, and other Commerce & Shopper Category
- Gold Effie: Xtra Savings Launch – No Smoke and Mirrors, Single Retailer Programme: Mass Merchants, Supermarkets, Drugstores, and other Commerce & Shopper Category
- Silver Effie: Xtra Savings Launch – No Smoke and Mirrors, Marketing Innovation Solutions Category
