Here are 20 great reasons for using HangTabs and Display Strips for your products:

1. Make products more visible in-store

Prime locations are middle eye-zone areas. Do-It® Hang Tabs and Display Strips put products at eye level.

2. Tap into in-store purchasing decisions

70% of purchasing decisions are made in-store – exploit this by placing products at check-out points.

3. Place products in prime in-store locations

Do-It® Hang Tabs and Display Strips attractively display products at points of purchase.

4. Increase sales with an attractive product display

Use colour to attract attention and elicit emotion to prompt consumers to buy.

5. Display products vertically and forward-facing

The face of your product is a billboard that advertises your product to passing consumers.

6. More products, same retail space

Do-It® Hang Tabs and Display Strips eliminate bulk packaging and offer flexible product display.

7. Fit more products into limited retail space

Hang Tabs are perfect for displaying products that come in different colours or sizes.

8. Stand out from the crowd

Get products noticed, understood and purchased in the shortest possible time.

9. Your instore advertising billboard

Face the largest dimension of your product to shoppers and use it as a billboard for passing consumers.

10. Visible products increase sales

Packaging and product placement equal sales! Increase visibility with Do It® Hang Tabs.

11. Attract attention at point of sale

Stand out from the crowd without investing heavily in new packaging design or marketing campaigns.

12. Move stock fast and reduce product loss

Moving products fast results in decreased loss of products with short shelf lives.

13. Significantly reduce product packaging

Do away with bulky packaging and make way for neat, orderly retail displays.

14. More display flexibility, less waste

Reinforcer Hang Tabs offer the right support for packaging that is vulnerable to tearing or breaking.

15. Increase merchandising options

Maximise display options by cross-merchandising products in the same aisle

16. Maximise impulse buys, increase sales

Point of purchase signage increases product sales by up to 33%.

17. Limited space, better cross-merchandising

Display strips are ideal for cross-merchandising and displaying items in limited retail space.

18. Communicate on-pack promotions fast

Do-It® Hang Tabs and Display Strips highlight on-pack promotions that sway undecided shoppers.

19. Tap into 70% of buying decisions made in-store

Do-It® Hang Tabs hang products on peg hooks or display strips exactly where customers can see them.

20. Make use of product display flexibility

Attractive, visible products in prime retail space have the best chance of selling.
