Galaxy KDay presented by Samsung and Kfm 94.5, is just a few days away and it's time to get festival-ready! Whether you're a newbie or a festival stalwart, preparation is key to having the best time on Saturday 4 March at Meerendal Estate.

Kfm 94.5 station manager, Stephen Werner says it's the perfect end-of-summer celebration offering something for everyone.

"Galaxy KDay is famous for featuring the finest in South African music. It's not just a music event but a full summer music festival experience! Galaxy KDay is the perfect day out with family and friends. Expect great music, good food, cool activations and an amazing atmosphere, against the scenic backdrop of the beautiful Cape winelands," says Werner.

The line-up includes the house trio Mi Casa featuring three of the country's top male musos. R&B hitmaker Jimmy Nevis is set to perform familiar favourites and songs from his new album. All-round entertainer and local music icon Emo Adams is bringing his unique mix of songs and humour back to the Galaxy KDay stage, and Afrikaans hip-hop artist Early B will keep the crowd on their feet!

Fun activations

The entertainment continues off-stage with fun activations like Kfm 94.5's immersive music experience hosted by some of the station's top presenters.

Festival goers will get to share the epic as they'll be amongst the first to experience the all-new, feature-packed Samsung Galaxy S23.

Interactive gaming, makeup touch-ups and giveaways are also on offer from big brands like Diary Maid, Mweb, Capitec Bank, Essence by Cosmetix SA and Crocs.

Food village

From street food to gourmet bites, the Galaxy KDay food village will serve up the best festival tastes the Cape has to offer. This includes a variety of delectable waffles from the food truck Every Day We're Waffling, which recently won Kfm 94.5's BizBoost Food Truck Edition.

Alcohol, soft drinks and water will also be available.
