25 Jun 2008

Grapevine Communications has been appointed to handle the communications for Rosebank College, part of The Independent Institute of Education (The IIE) which is a registered provider with the Department of Education. The IIE is part of the listed AdvTech Group.

Grapevine was awarded the account based on its past performance with projects that required strong community media coverage and its established media contacts with both community and national media.

Rosebank College was first established in 1948 and has five campuses across the country including Johannesburg, Benoni, Pretoria, Durban and Cape Town which offer a range of The IIE one to three year Higher Education and Industry Aligned certificate and diploma level qualifications. Rosebank College also offers Short Learning Programmes through its School of Business aimed at adult learners.
