Howard Music is moving studios to Ministry Of Illusion in Bryanston.

In an industry which fears stagnation, Adam Howard has taken his fresh ideas and production values and raised the bar, winning over scores of top clients. The results are plain to see (or hear as the case may be).

Adam will be moving Howard Music lock, stock and barrel into the West Studio at Ministry Of Illusion in Bryanston as of the 4th of August. Although Adam will be based in their premises, the Loerie and Clio-winning, pulse-raising sounds of Howard Music are set to improve not only the MOI productions, but also the existing core clients of Howard Music. Here Howard Music will compose, produce and final mix.

Adam is, needless to say, very excited about the move. "It's a great move for Howard Music, and I'm really excited about working with as enthusiastic a team as the MOI. My brand new studio will offer my clients the very best in music and audio, and the facilities at MOI are just fantastic."
