

Grey Goose Vodka launch

Issued by Thirst Bar Services

25 Aug 2008

The South African market was recently introduced to Grey Goose Vodka and Thirst Bar Services was there to roll out the red carpet. One of the world's premium brands of vodka, Grey Goose was launched in August 2008 at Lanseria Airport in Johannesburg and Future Exotics in Cape Town.

This sought-after launch was ultimately awarded to Thirst which proves that when it comes to service, quality and cocktails... Thirst Bar Services is definitely leading the pack in the mobile bar and cocktail industry.

The two launches were a fantastic success with more than 250 people attending each launch and with the help of Thirst, Grey Goose Vodka showed the variety of cocktails that could be made with their product. From the Mango and Chili Martini to the Orange and Cinnamon Gimlet ("Loose Goose" on the night), Thirst Bartenders showed how these cocktails should be made.

With such a long list of successful functions this year and the Christmas season around the corner, don't forget to contact us on to start those bookings.
