4 Feb 2009

The Advertising Media Association of South Africa (AMASA) reminds media planners, strategists, advertisers and marketers that entries for the 2009 Roger Garlick Awards close next Friday, 13 February 2009.

The Award, sponsored by Oracle Airtime Sales, will highlight the stars of the media and advertising industries by allocating AMASA Golds and the overall Roger Garlick Award winner, as deemed fit by the judging panel. Finalists will be announced at AMASA's AGM in April and winners will be made known at Tony Koenderman's prestigious AdReview awards on the 23 April.

The cost per entry is R600 inclusive of VAT. At least two original, and eight duplicate copies of the completed entry form and supporting material must accompany each entry.

All entries must be submitted, together with entry fees, to:
