Leading marketing solutions company PenQuin International together with Emperors Palace and The Star has given some lucky participants opportunities to realise their dreams in the Emperors Palace Game Card promotion.

Contestants are throwing bones and consulting astrologists to determine whether they will win two keys to the final draw of the R8 million Emperors Palace Dream House II in San Lameer, one of two Alfa Romeo 156's or up to R190 000 in cash.

The Game Card consists of three different game elements. These are Dream Search - a word search game, Day Dream - a cut and paste game and Lucky Bucks - a lucky number game. Participants have been collecting game cards in the Monday editions of The Star and Pretoria News and completing the elements. Draws have been taking place each Thursday at Emperors Palace and one lucky contestant has already driven away in a new Alfa Romeo while another left with R50 000 cash!
