

Style Tech displays boost Peugeot

Issued by Rocket Creative Design & Display

6 May 2013

Recently the Style Tech brand was pleased to have been selected to supply their popular curved aesthetic ST 13 large format graphic standee to promote the French automobile company, Peugeot.

"The state-of-the-art design characteristics of the Style Tech system delivers a sophisticated aesthetic which is perfectly suited to present established international brands such as Peugeot. The display options within the range from spec sheet / way-finding type units to tall standee units, are intentionally designed to exude an upmarket elegance when assembled, coupled with superior modular functionality to enhance effortless re-branding as well as ease of transport", explains Richard Nilson, originator of the trend setting range.
