

Senior Designer and Copywriter

Hello. I'm Mirah Bradt. I'm a qualified, experienced, established senior designer and copywriter specialising in graphic design, brand identity, visual communications, digital and web. Based in Sandton CBD, I am Adobe trained and certified, fluent with MacOS, Adobe Creative Suite platforms.

Choosing to work with me facilitates the building of a powerful professional partnership that evolves intelligently with your business needs to present compelling visual design concepts that are persuasive, relevant and practical.

From the first concept to the final completion, my objective is to translate creative concepts into original and effective visual design and content. Proactive, personal, reliable, hands-on project management is the foundation for exceptional professional work that is always delivered on time, within budget, and to brief.
