The 2013 MyBroadband Conference attracted a record audience, and the discussions at the event are still making headlines.

The 2013 MyBroadband Conference was the biggest and best broadband conference in South Africa, with 2,100 delegates attending the event and Aki Anastasiou once again the MC for the event.

The event was hosted at Gallagher Convention Centre on 9 October, and attracted top speakers and delegates which included most CEOs in the local telecoms and IT market.

Speakers from South Africa's large telecommunications operators attended including Vodacom CEO Shameel Joosub, Telkom COO Brian Armstrong, Cell C CEO Alan Knott-Craig, MTN SA CEO Zunaïd Bulbulia and Neotel CEO Sunil Joshi.

The list of sponsors was just as impressive with 32 companies partnering with MyBroadband this year.
