Kevin Lancaster joined MyBroadband as a journalist. He worked as a news journalist for The Mercury before moving to Gauteng to join the company.

Kevin obtained a BCom in business management and economics from Unisa, and has a diploma in journalism from Independent Newspapers where he began his writing career in the company's Cadet School.

Mariaan Burger joined MyBroadband as a marketing assistant. After a few marketing and sales related positions, she settled down in Gauteng to further her marketing career.

Mariaan graduated from the North West University with a Bachelor's degree in Marketing Management. She is currently working towards an honours degree at Unisa.

"MyBroadband has continued to show phenomenal growth and we are very happy to be able to add Kevin and Mariaan to our growing team," said Cara Muller, MyBroadband's Sales Director.
