"Natasha made us proud as she was selected as the top two and runner-up of this highly talented community of 100 top global CMOs. The announcement was made at a graduation ceremony held in Cannes this week. Natasha's topic on humanised growth is around creating shared value for women in the South African alcohol industry", says Paul Jackson,

CEO of Grey Advertising Africa. "On behalf of the Grey and WPP team, we would like to congratulate Natasha on this achievement and deserved recognition."

About the IRG100 Leadership Program
