

Howard Audio tells big brand stories the musical way for Cell C

Howard Audio was responsible for the emotive music heard on the latest Cell C campaign - "Change Your World" - directed by Karien Cherry (Giant Films). Played entirely on piano - Adam Howard explains a little about the musical process:

"The brief was to compose a piece of music that didn't feel 'too scored' to picture - as though we'd found a piece that just happened to work. I watched the movie a few times then played live to the picture in one take. We tried adding other musical elements but felt just solo piano - with a hint of strings - was the correct route to go."
