

AFP extends global content partnership with Getty Images

Agence France-Presse, a global news agency and Getty Images, a leader in visual communications have announced that they would extend their long-lasting content agreement. The two global companies have worked in partnership since 2003 covering news, sports, and entertainment to newsrooms and readers around the world.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>