

Ksenya Samarskaya becomes the first managing director of Type Directors Club

Design strategist and educator Ksenya Samarskaya has been named the first managing director in the Type Directors Club's 75-year history, an international typography organisation.

In 2020, The One Club merged with TDC. Along with Carol Wahler, who has served as TDC's executive director for more than twenty years, she will expand TDC's programming and support for the typographic community.
