

2015 ONE Africa Award extends deadline

Africa-led, Africa-driven organizations now have an additional week to submit their applications for consideration for the 2015 ONE Africa Award. The Award honors outstanding contributions by African based organizations leading the fight against poverty and preventable disease on the continent. The deadline for applying has been extended until midnight Monday 7 September 2015. For more information, go to www.one.org/africaaward.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>