

Our Salad Mix welcomes new national account executive

Our Salad Mix, a specialist media agency focused on community radio campaigns, has added Sanet Blignaut to its sales team.

Blignaut has more than 12 years of experience in sales, with close to 10 years in radio sales at stations like Magic828 and Capricorn FM.

She is looking forward to building good, long-term client relationships. She describes herself as being loyal, passionate about the sales environment and as someone who always looks out for the best interests of her clients.
