

Vika Shipalana joins SA Harvest board

SA Harvest, a food rescue, hunger relief, and food activist organisation that has delivered an average of 645,000 meals per month to those in need since its founding in October 2019, has appointed Vika Shipalana to its board of directors.

Shipalana has extensive marketing experience and a wide network that SA Harvest can leverage. With over 19 years of experience in sales, trade marketing, and brand marketing and a passion for contributing towards making African luxury brands and services appreciated globally, she founded VS Luxury Group (Pty) Ltd in 2018.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>