

aYo Holdings boosts executive team with 2 new appointments

African insurtech aYo Holdings has made two key C-suite appointments as it looks to accelerate its ambitious growth plans across the continent and into the South African market.

The company has named Ivan Welch as its new chief customer acquisition officer and Miles Bloemstein as its chief operating officer as part of its vision of becoming the largest insurance technology platform in Africa.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>