

Radisson Hotel & Convention Centre appoints Stefan Lourens as its new general manager

Stefan Lourens has been named general manager of Radisson Hotel & Convention Centre, Johannesburg, OR Tambo.

Lourens has over 25 years of hospitality experience. Since 1994, when he was a student at Wits Hotel School, he has worked in hotels and casinos in South Africa, Saudi Arabia and Jordan. In 2005, he became executive assistant manager at Sheraton Pretoria Hotel. He later became deputy general manager at Sheraton Amman Hotel and Towers and general manager at Four Points by Sheraton Riyadh Khaldia.

Lourens is a well-rounded and experienced hotelier who has implemented new food and beverage concepts and built strategic alliances with key figures and corporations worldwide.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>