Since its inception in 2009, the Ndlovu Youth Choir has become one of South Africa's most treasured choral groups also recognised globally for their unique musical arrangements, vocal talents and infectious energy.

Ndlovu Youth Choir in Concert features many of the Choir's famous hits such as Africa, Shallow/Enxwemeni, Shape of You, Higher Love, Hold On, Ungandibulali and We Will Rise.

The repertoire also features their newest songs Man in the Mirror and Grateful, and some original compositions including WeBaba Omncane and Afrika Hey from their first studio album entitled Grateful which was released in April 2022 across all streaming platforms.

"We are proud to kick-start Showtime's re-entry into the live performance space with the Ndlovu Youth Choir in Concert," says Showtime Management's Tony Feldman. "These young, multi-talented singers are shining examples of how hope, determination and respect can thrive through unity." Feldman believes a show such as Ndlovu Youth Choir in Concert is invaluable in getting audiences back into theatres.

From their home base in the Moutse Valley in rural Limpopo to reaching the finals of America's Got Talent in season 14, the Ndlovu Youth Choir has played sold-out performances in Europe and appeared on many local and international television and radio shows.
