

A first look at the revamped Toyota Fortuner

Toyota has revealed its revamped SUV, the Toyota Fortuner. First launched in 2006, the SUV continues to offer a blend of styling, versatility, off-road prowess and practicality. The 2020 model boasts sharpened exterior and interior styling, enhanced specification levels, new-generation infotainment system, improved power and performance as well as new safety and security features.

The 2020 Toyota Fortuner models pricing start at R566,800.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>