

See: 2021 RCX Championship kicks off in Pretoria

On 28 February, the Motul RC Raceway at Zwartkops, Pretoria, hosted the first round of the 2021 RCX Championship and the warm-up to the National Series. The Zwartkops track was open for both amateurs and South Africa's top RCX competitors in this motorsport. The format of the 2021 RCX Championship sees participants compete in three, six-minute qualifying rounds followed by a main race lasting from 30 to 45 minutes. The sport also features competitors aged from just four years old to over 65 making it a family fun event. See the gallery below:

Some of South Africa's leading RCX competitors, including eight-time SA champion Miguel Haasbroek (Mugen Seiki, OS Speed), RCX Pro Buggy champion Kyle Stofberg (HB Racing, Picco, 6MIK), Triple RCX Pro Buggy champion Justin van Biljon (Mugen Seiki, AMR OS Speed), and 2020 KwaZulu Natal Pro Buggy champion, Richard Duckham (TLR, Picco, 6MIK), battling it out for the honours at this year's competition.
