

Amp Events announces new dates for SA leg of +LIVE+'s 25th-anniversary tour

Amp Events has announced that the South African leg of +LIVE+'s 25th Anniversary Throwing Copper Tour has been postponed until November 2021. The band is set to take the stage at the GrandWest Grand Arena in Cape Town on 2 November 2021 before heading to the Sun Arena-Time Square in Pretoria on 5 and 6 November 2021.

The concert organisers have also indicated that all tickets purchased for the 2020 concerts are valid for the new 2021 dates.

The original lineup of Ed Kowalczyk, Chad Taylor, Patrick Dahlheimer and Chad Gracey will be bringing the full weight of +LIVE+'s incredible 30-year catalogue to these concerts. South African fans can still look forward to shows packed with their hits, including "Lightning Crashes", "Dolphins Cry", "I Alone", "Selling the Drama", "All Over You", "Lakini's Juice", "Overcome", "Heaven" and more.
