

Da Kruk hosts African music show on Los Angeles' Dash Radio

Touring DJ, music producer, radio host and creative entrepreneur, Kutloano "Da Kruk" Nhlapo has secured a radio show slot on Los Angeles' Dash Radio - with a focus on the best new music from Africa.

Image supplied: Kutloano "Da Kruk" Nhlapo

The Syndicate Africa' with the tagline "Spinning the Best New Music from Africa" will air every Friday at 12pm SAST on Dash Radio / Discover, starting 1 April.

Da Kruk hopes to take African music to even bigger heights, as he has continuously been a key name in highlighting the awareness and put-on of the ever-expanding, and now international, South African Amapiano genre.

Africa Rising Music Conference showcases international talent

15 Mar 2022

Dash Radio is a no-subscription fee, commercial-free premium radio station that can be accessed for free on its website.

Dash Radio is a California-based digital radio broadcasting platform with over 80 original stations. These stations are curated by DJs, radio personalities, musicians, and music tastemakers. The platform includes partner stations curated by the likes of Snoop Dogg, Kylie Jenner, Lil Wayne, Tech N9ne, Borgore, B-Real of Cypress Hill, and others.

Dash Radio was launched in August 2014 by radio-TV personality and music executive, Scott Keeney, better known as DJ Skee.

Science and creativity collaborate to pair music and wine

17 Mar 2022

“I am super excited to be broadcasting in Hollywood and creating an authentic gateway for young African artists to become the next global superstars on their own terms”, says Da Kruk.

Da Kruk strongly believes in continuously seeking new avenues and ways to expand and grow. He has managed to showcase the South African/African music and entertainment market on international platforms and promises to continue pressing play on it.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>