

King Shaka International Airport gives boost for science

King Shaka International Airport provides a formula for science in KwaZulu-Natal schools.

King Shaka International Airport's recent investment has resulted in a boost for education in the Inanda and Kwa-Mashu areas. Six schools are the recipients of the latest Caps compliant maths and natural science kits which have been donated by King Shaka International Airport.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>