

Practical tips on how to prepare for your job search

Lillian Bususu, the graduate placement manager at IIE Rosebank College, offers useful tips on everything job seekers need to know and do when starting their job search, which includes paying attention to detail, doing everything with excellence and persevering through the process.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>