

See: Mseki Primary School welcomes new library

The Tomorrow Trust partnered with cybersecurity company Mimecast and gifted Mseki Primary School in Gugulethu, Cape Town a new library.

The library, a first of its kind in the area, is fully stocked with books donated by Mimecast and its employees, and features an arts and crafts station. The Tomorrow Trust works with corporate partners to support vulnerable children throughout their academic journeys and has been actively involved with Mseki Primary School since 2015.
