Primedia Outdoor's PrimeCourts division recently acquired the brand activation rights to the SA Corporate Real Estate portfolio as well as Killarney Mall in Johannesburg. The acquisition sees the footprint of the company's brand activation offering expanded by 21 additional malls and shopping centres in Gauteng and KwaZulu-Natal.

Connecting with consumers - Growth opportunities in the brand activations industry

"Growth during these tough times is incredibly positive, and Primedia Outdoor is constantly looking at the best opportunities to grow value to all our stakeholders," says Danie van Aswegen, Executive: Rights & Development Malls at Primedia Outdoor. "We are extremely excited to partner with both SA Corporation and Killarney Mall, and are focused on delivering value to partners, shoppers and exhibitors alike at each venue."

Brand activations in the mall environment provide an invaluable way of connecting with shoppers along their shopping journey, offering brands the ability to drive consideration, trial and conversion, helping shoppers make informed purchasing decisions at last engagement point in the path to purchase. Primedia Outdoor is a key player in the Non GLA space and has extensive experience in executing remarkable engaging activation campaigns in the mall environment, across a multitude of retail destinations throughout South Africa. Each new mall provides a unique audience platform that enable brands to engage with shoppers to fulfil their set objectives, and at Primedia Outdoor we pride ourselves in working closely with our landlord partners to develop these unique offerings in the in-mall media, activation and exhibition environments. We are honoured to add the SA Corporate Real Estate portfolio and Killarney Mall to our portfolio, and believe it further demonstrates that we are a trusted and preferred partner in the non-GLA space.

Mutual benefits of brand activations

“The PrimeCourts division delivers memorable brand experiences across various categories such as the automotive industry – Through brand activations in our shopping centres, automotive brands have an extension of their showroom enabling engagement by bringing the products to the consumers,” says Trust Masarirambi, Sales Manager: Malls at Primedia Outdoor. “With Covid-19 limiting movements around various communities, consumers are able to do their shopping under one roof. This provides a mutual benefit in that consumers get access to products they need under one roof, and brands get the right level of exposure during these tough times.”
