Winners were announced on 1 December at the One Screen Short Film Festival 2022 ceremony and screening at the SVA Theater in New York. To view the complete list of winners, go here.

This year's entries were judged by a jury of leading film directors, producers, agency creatives, and production company heads from around the world.

The global festival focuses on all forms and aspects of short films — narrative fiction, comedy, passion projects, commercials, branded content, music videos, spec work, animation, sound, movie poster design, title sequences, etc. — and has a mission to celebrate and award filmmakers from around the world working in both the film and ad industries with no limitation and total artistic freedom, all on one screen.

The One Screen Short Film Festival was launched in 2011 to further honour creative excellence in film. An archive of past winners is available here.
