

AfricaWorks teams up with Seedstars and enters the innovation market in Africa

AfricaWorks, a pan-African company that offers flexible office space has announced its partnership with the Seedstars' African locations in Abidjan, Cairo and Dar es Salam. The partnership with Seedstar means that entrepreneurs and AfricaWorks' members will have a better access to services and visibility to convert their projects into job creation and shared value all across Africa. Entrepreneurs and AfricaWorks members will also benefit from the top-class entrepreneurial and educational programs and extending tailored opportunities across the continent.
