

Here You Go - Read the report from the Expert Panel on the 2021 civil unrest and looting

Violent civil unrest engulfed parts of KwaZulu-Natal and Gauteng in July 2021. The Presidency has released the report by the Expert Panel on the unrest.

Source: Reuters/Siphiwe Sibeko/File Photo

One of the key recommendations is that the President initiates the drawing-up of a national security strategy. It also says urgent action is needed to facilitate conditions and pathways for development at local government level. 'It is time for South Africans to accept that those who have, must share with those who do not. It is that simple, really,' concludes the report.

The report was compiled by Professor Sandy Africa as chairperson, with Silumko Sokupa and Advocate Mojanku Gumbi.

Read the original article on Daily Maverick

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>