The 2023 Rugby World Cup is in full swing and with the Boks having played so well in their first two games, they now have a mouth-watering clash on 23 September 2023 against the Irish. Well what better way to get into the mood than with a remix of the iconic song World in Union used in the 1995 World Cup as sung by PJ Powers and DJ Coshier giving a 2023 World Cup feel. This powerful remix, a collaboration between PJ Powers and DJ Coshier, the creator of numerous successful remixes of iconic hits, aims to reignite the same sense of unity and determination that defined Mandela's legacy and the Springboks' historic victory.

I recently chatted to DJ Cosher...

▣ What is your purpose?

To make and share my love for music in all forms!

▣ What does music mean to you?

It's a way to speak freely, not only share an emotion but also make someone feel a certain way.

▣ My music is about...

Making people dance and smile equally. Lately the journey of doing many covers of iconic songs has allowed me to create "familiarity" with the listeners I am sharing my music with ▣ What is your motto?

If you do something, do it great.

▣ Fame is about...

It's a wider platform to share my music and it's a responsibility to keep creating more good music.

In a perfect world my music would be famous and I wouldn't be famous personally . It helps being a producer DJ and not a singer.

When my ideas run out. So hopefully not for a very long time, unless AI takes over.

▣ I don't do...

Drugs and negativity.

▣ I would love to co-write with...

Coldplay, David Guetta and Roger Goode.
