

Accelerate releases 2nd short film from its 2019 filmmaker project

Accelerate TV has released the second film from its 2019 filmmaker project. The project – titled Black Monday – was written and directed by Adetola Films.

The film focuses on the effects of stigmatisation in the society as it tells a story of a young man, Abiodun, who returns from prison to face stigmatisation from the members of his community.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>